What Can Photoshop Do? As stated earlier, Photoshop provides a rich, layered composition of tools for professionals to create and alter images. The basic image-editing tools are: • The Move, Rotate, and Crop tools • The Paint Bucket • The Brush • The Eraser • The Lasso tool • The Dodge tool • The Burn tool • The Soften tool • The Blur tool • The Dodge and Burn tools • The Levels tool • The Color Picker tool • The Color Gradient tool • The Dodge tool • The Dodge and Burn tools • The Burn tool • The Heal tool • The Clone tool • The Adjustment layer • Color Variations • Gradient maps • Merging layers • Skewing layers • The Rotate and Flatten tools • The Filter In this section, we'll show you how to use Photoshop to improve your images in a number of ways. The Move, Rotate, and Crop tools As with most image-editing programs, the first thing that you'll probably want to do with Photoshop is change the size of an image. You may want to make a picture larger so that you can fit all of the image elements on the page, or you may want to downsize the image to make it smaller for printing or use on the Web. When it comes to making enlargements, the easiest way to do this is with the Move tool. Drag the tool over the image and a marquee will appear around the selection you've made, as shown in the top image of Figure 1. To reduce the size of an image, simply click the border of the image with the mouse or use the keyboard to scroll the crop area down as shown in the bottom image of Figure 1. Figure 1: To make the image larger, drag the Move tool across the image. To reduce the image, click the border of the image with the mouse or use the arrow keys to scroll the crop area down. The Move tool also allows you to make small adjustments to the placement and cropping of the image. With the Move tool selected, click and drag the tool to reposition the image on the page. When you release the mouse, the image will snap to the new position.

A Black man claiming to be a U.S. Navy SEAL who was charged with first degree murder after fatally shooting a teen girl in self-defense has taken a plea deal. Gilbert Lee Goodwin, 21, pleaded guilty to voluntary manslaughter in exchange for a four-year prison sentence and 2,000 hours of community service, according to the State’s Attorney’s Office in Virginia Beach. Goodwin shot deceased 14-year-old Tori Mosby during a case of mistaken identity on February 8 in Virginia Beach. According to the Virginian-Pilot, Goodwin and Mosby had a running feud at a party attended by roughly 50 people, when she was allegedly attacked by the shooter and pinned to the ground. Police found Goodwin hiding in the backyard of the residence where he and Mosby were initially taking place at the time of the incident. He was not a party guest, but reportedly hopped the fence to the backyard and hid before police arrived. According to Goodwin’s attorney, he claims he was the one responsible for the fatal shooting, which was forced on him by Mosby’s sister, who was allegedly arguing with him prior to the shooting. “He explained to detectives that he only fired the shot because he felt like she was going to try to run him over with her car,” Goodwin’s attorney, Benjamin Ford, told the newspaper. The State’s Attorney’s Office said that Goodwin shot Mosby “in the chest as she lay on the ground” and told police he believed “she was about to take his life.” In the confession recorded by police, Goodwin said that he gave his first statement to police days after the shooting in a “lie detector session.” “[I]s [sic] like a flashback,” Goodwin said, according to the State’s Attorney’s Office. “I don’t know how to describe it. I’ve never been in this situation before,” adding, “I’m hoping I never have to go through this again.” Goodwin is scheduled for sentencing on April 16.Q: How to get row data from jTable, populate a gridview, then save to a database I need to display some data in a gridview as a way of book keeping inventory
