OfficePaths [Mac/Win]

OfficePaths is a small utility that finds and displays the locations of folders that MS Office uses for various things. It is designed to be easy to use. It does not require any installation, and it is 100% free to use. For example, when it is installed, it displays the following folders: - PowerPoint Startup - PowerPoint Addins - PowerPoint Templates - Word Startup - Word Addins and Templates Note: For those using the Mac version of MS Office, you can install OfficePaths on your Mac to display the same information. OfficePaths Requirements: - MS Office Version 1.6 New in this version 1) Bug fixes: Fixed a bug in the Add-in check that would sometimes cause the search to fail. Version 1.5 The OfficePaths search dialog has been updated to allow the user to search for both the Add-in names and the names of the files they contain. Version 1.4 For those of you who still do not like the new version of OfficePaths, this is your lucky day. Version 1.3 This is the final release. From this version on, OfficePaths will be completely free to use. Version 1.2 Search functionality has been added. For example, type to search for a name or extension, and it will search for all instances. Version 1.1 A new feature: search functionality has been added. For example, type to search for a name or extension, and it will search for all instances. This is useful for people who have multiple email accounts that they use under the same name (e.g. yahoo.com and gmail.com). In the past, if you made a mistake, you had to manually search for the folder and delete all the mail files. This caused problems. Now, with the new search feature, you type "y" or "gmail", and it will search for all instances where that extension is used in OfficePaths. Version 1.0.7 This release is purely to fix a crash problem that was reported by one of our testers. We hope this will be the only version that has to be installed, since we are still working on fixing the problem. Version 1.0.6 A minor bug fix release. Version 1.0.5 Minor bug fix release. Version 1.0.
