Creating a furniture composition in the Potolok program. The size on the video is shown practically not in centimeters, but in pixels. Many furniture lovers, manufacturers decide to make upholstery on their own, they use a variety of materials for this, ranging from various woods to synthetic ones: latex, polyurethane, elastane. To give the product a more presentable look, first of all, you need to evaluate whether the upholstery material you have chosen is suitable. There are a number of rules that must be followed when choosing a material. 1. The interior should meet your individual tastes and needs, the place for its placement should be chosen carefully. Furniture should never be too large, as it visually reduces an already small room. 2. Upholstered furniture should be made of natural material, namely, it can be: cotton, linen, chenille, leather and others, so it will give comfort. 3. The color scheme of a sofa, armchair or other upholstered furniture should be selected in accordance with the color of the walls. For example, if the furniture is dark, then it will draw attention to its dark surface, and if it is light, then on the contrary, it will look more harmonious in the room. 4. When choosing a material, you need to take into account its dimensions, so on sale you can see sofas that have a width of 60 centimeters to 1.5 meters. 6. Before buying, the upholstery must be treated in order to avoid stains. 7. The upholstery of upholstered furniture should be non-slip to protect the furniture from damage. 8. The upholstery and filler must be durable so that the furniture lasts a long time. For furniture, high-quality leather is often used, which does not rub or get wet. 10. When creating upholstered furniture, it is important to consider its place in which it will be installed. How to sew a sofa cover with your own hands?
