About Hello Friends, I hope you are very well, and you are looking for the best software for creating connections and networks in business, to know all your connections? Have you been busy? You've come to the right place, because we have cool and useful extensions for Chrome, Firefox, Safari and Opera browsers for you. So, let's get started. Network: Create a Business Network Let's start. Advantages Of What are the Advantages of this cool extension? It's a button which will enable your desktop screen in full-screen mode, in a Split View model. (See Screenshot) You can use this button in such a way that the taskbar, close button of the browser and other icons will not get exposed. And the most important advantage of this extension is that in the split-screen model, different browser windows will open at the same time. You can open two or more of them. For example, you can have two Google Chrome pages open in Full-screen Mode, and you can use this button to share your screen. (See Screenshot) Concluding from this screenshot, you can see how the extension buttons will open Google Chrome pages in full-screen mode. Also, we can see that the extension button will show up only when we move the mouse cursor to the right side of the screen, and then only the browser window will get opened. What Can You Do With This Extension? You can use the Split View Model to share your screen with your colleagues by using the Extension button. (See Screenshot) Also, you can use it to preview a different file which is open in a different tab. (See Screenshot) You can use this 82138339de
