As another example, if I am interested in buying things but I am not certain whether a particular seller has sent the particular item I wanted, I would like to receive an email that alerts me when the item comes in so that I can confirm the existence of the item and choose whether or not to purchase it. I couldn't think of any way to answer that, so I had to go through the awkward routine again that I have seen in almost every 1cb139a0ed
