Field of the Invention The present invention is directed to high-speed packet transmission systems, and, more specifically, to a method and apparatus for providing buffering of data within the system. 2. Description of the Related Art High-speed data transfer systems are becoming a necessity in modern life. Among the requirements of such a system is throughput speed that is substantially greater than one gigabyte (1 GB) of data per second. This high throughput speed is necessary for transfer of the large amounts of data that are involved with multimedia applications, such as video-conferencing, real-time voice and still picture transmission, etc. Currently, digital subscriber lines (DSL) offer data rates of

De Maiziere, a member of the Christian Democratic Union party (CDU), made his suggestion in a magazine article, Der Spiegel reports. He says the German constitution already bans full Islamic face veils but not other forms. "At the moment, a face veil is not explicitly covered by the ban
