i've been playing Elden Ring since the beta and have been impressed with the art, the soundtrack, the gameplay and the story so far.The original wiki says it's set in the land of Ravnica a few thousand years ago but really i don't think it's actually that old. He says he's about 20 but he looks much younger in the game. Imagine if you had a kid this age that was this cute but also badass. I'm trying to think of a real life role play scenario where I could find a kid this age. I probably wouldn't choose to interact with them but it'd be cool to see their reaction to a beautiful game with a cute main character.Well there are plenty of lore sites that reference this stuff which make it seem old. The Tower of Eternity was supposedly built by the Earth God himself to allow the Exiled to come forth. That's what they call themselves in Elden Ring. I'm unsure of the exact names of the other gods but many people say they know them.The Elden Ring is the central focus in the story that I have read. Here's a link that goes into more detail about it. The main character is called Daggoth(D-0-G-0-T-O-W-K-E-A-R) and is also the title character. In the forums of Elden Ring there is a "Daggoth ballad" which goes into more detail about him. There's also a series of songs about the other characters, here's one. Vagueness is a buzz word in anime and fantasy lore where a character doesn't mention where the action is or what it's like. When you read "a journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step" it makes sense because it never really says where the journey is. When you've been watching a series for years, you can just pretend the anime is taking place in the anime world. That's what I'm doing with Elden Ring, I'm taking bff6bb2d33

What's new in Elden Ring:

======Xombie A medliabrane Devlog: instagram Fantasy action RPG with awesome improvements to the NG+ level from the devlog. With a switch to requirement based level sync, we're able to better control the leveling process. There's more freedom on the character creation front, as you can now freely mix and match existing settings and gear. I'm fiddling with all aspects of development. The online/local multiplayer aspect is still being worked on and finishing the build. Of note: -The map is ~10 times the size of NG+. Considering the fact that each area has various difficulty levels, you can get a sense of how MUCH it's evolved. -There's much more variety of enemies/bosses. -Due to the combined experience of the dev team, there are some improvements to gameplay and areas such as map, gem acquisition, crafting, and so on. -A new UI and HUD. You'll be switching gears quickly and you need a better way to do that. -Improving the in-game voice, as well as the splash cast upskirt. -Of course, everything else I can think of is in there. If you're interested in what I've been working on lately, please check out the following posts.

From the get-go! Thanks for checking out my devlog. This is a sneak peek of what the upcoming NG+ update will bring. ======================= Xombie (Tarnished, SK) ======Xombie/www.instagram.com/www.instagram.com Saving the World one step at a time. 89.26.46.31 ping: unknown host 89.26.46.31 The strange thing here is that a lot of the requests seem to originate from Ireland and Romania. I checked my DNS, and found that cloudflare redirects between the name servers, so we seem to have multi-homed our droplet. Output ocserv-stat for the site: Site/domain [myfirewall] 82.81
