WE ARE THE EARLEN RING THANKS TO YOU!

Thank you for taking this experience in a fantasy world with us. The response from fans has surpassed our expectations, but we have been plagued with the reality of how many people use portable devices these days. To overcome this, the development team struggled mightily. However, while taking our time to think about the best plan of action for Web apps and mobile apps, WE THE EARLEN RING team, who had to continue developing the game as planned to our specifications, began to grow in size, and we now need to perform maintenance to secure the release date. All of us at WE THE EARLEN RING and at this development team are truly grateful to be able to finally launch this highly anticipated game. In addition, please check for the last update information, and thank you for your understanding.

Release Date: March 31 (JST)

Game developer: Antero Programmer: VanZe Graphics: Koonigit Sound: Y-Dash Main producer: Koonigit Balance: Omono-san, Leiko_us 3D design: OVERVIEW Antero: I was influenced by various types of games and started game design from a fantasy setting. VanZe: VanZe is a diehard fan of the Souls series, which inspired him to create a game that has a fantasy setting. I decided to create a game that lets people live within its fantasy world and the fantasy world of a fantasy world. The unique fantasy world where people can live, the fantasy world of a fantasy world, and the fantasy world of the fantasy world are incorporated in this game. Antero: Although we have a time limit when creating a fantasy world, the boundaries are not fixed because players can explore the world with a variety of events and battles and meet other people. For example, I was happy to find this world while playing other games while simultaneously developing the game. Antero: VanZe wanted to create a game that lets players live in a fantasy world that was not found in other games. Omono-san: We wanted to develop a game that allowed one to enjoy the feel of being in a fantasy world, not just in a fantasy world, so we put a lot of thought into it and completed it. Leiko_us: The fantasy world is the world that will be experienced in the game. As long as it is interesting, it becomes its own fantasy world. Koonigit: Besides Omono-san, Leiko_us and myself, there was no one else who had this type of dream. We created a fantasy world where people can live with our world and environment and the fantasy world of a fantasy world. Koonigit: This game features a fantasy world where people can live. Its unique fantasy world includes small spots where players can freely interact with other players and meet unique and wonderful people. Omono-san: This is bff6bb2d33
