Q: Let G be a finite group and a be a non-identity element of G . Consider $A = \{g \in G \mid g^{-1}ag = a\}$. How do I prove that $A = G$?
 A: Suppose $a \in A$ where $A \subseteq G$. We want to prove $A = G$. Let $x \in G$. Then, $x \in A$ if and only if $x = a^k$ for some $k \in \mathbb{N}_0$ (by definition). Hence, $x = a^ka^{-k}$ for some $k \in \mathbb{N}_0$. Therefore, $A \subseteq G$ because: $x = a^k = (a^{-1})^{-k}a^{-k} = a^{-k}a^k = a^ka^{-k}$ and $A \subseteq G$ because: $x = a^{-k}a^k = a^ka^{-k}$

Diamond DA40-180 Reviews The Alabeo DA40-180 recreates this popular composite-build aircraft in its earlier guise with a steam gauge cockpit. With a 180-horsepower engine and seating for four, the DA40-180 went on to spawn later generations with glass cockpits and alternative power plants. It has been optimised for the "FSX Steam Edition" with a quality addon Documents include Normal Procedures PDF, Emergency Procedures PDF, Performance tables PDF, References PDF Best Cool Plane Ever! Pros: After owning the second edition of the DA40, this latest version is the closest version to the original. I love the original version of the Diamond DA40. DA40 is still the best looking multicopter ever in FSX with it's reflections. More real looking than the third edition. Who would have ever thought the Diamond DA40 would look cooler than the Diamond DA40-180? This aircraft is a true Gem! Great addon in FSX Steam Edition - the worst being the 2nd edition with the Steam Workshop. Cons: The "non Steam edition" is lacking in features compared to it's Steam version. DA40-180 is the best looking version of the Diamond DA40. The commercial addons are great. The big downside is the lack of Steam Workshop versions. DA40-180 has two problems, the first is that the forward cockpit looks "populated", the rear cockpit is hard to see. The second problem is that when flying the actual air craft, I have noticed that the engine sound becomes flat, but the propeller does not seem to spin during flight. The Diamond DA40 is the best looking aircraft for the FSX Steam Edition with a high quality 3D model that looks as real as the original Diamond DA40. Broken Frontier needs to fully complete their addons for the Steam Edition. The best thing about Diamond DA40-180 is the very detailed textures for this aircraft. They are the best looking aircraft

(1977 film) Jubilee is a 1977 American adventure comedy film set aboard a riverboat steamboat, the merchant vessel Rocky Mountain Queen, that is the setting for the story. The movie was directed by Harold Becker and stars Marlon Brando, Kurt Russell, Maximilian Schell, and Harrison Ford, and was a box office success. Plot In the Mexican Revolution, bandit leader General Mariano "Momo" Valli (Marlon Brando) and his men, after crossing the border to the United States, are ambushed by the U.S. Army. Momo is wounded, but the bandits survive and flee south with the Mexican woman Maria (Margaret Whiting). Momo quickly learns of an ironclad contract for $1 million to be paid for the safe return of the United States Ambassador (Arnold Moss) and his family. This isn't the first time that the Ambassador has inadvertently led a band of revolutionaries into danger, as he has never married his first wife Mary, who died many years before, leaving the Ambassador with an inappropriate live-in lover Alma, to whom he has never explained the true reason for his death. Pursued by the bandits, the Ambassador, Alma, and his family travel aboard the Queen as they seek money to pay for a bond to finance their passage home. Juan "Johnny Nazzo" (J. J. Nazzaro), the head of a local Mafia-controlled gambling empire headquartered in Juarez (Chihuahua), has a plan for the Ambassador and himself to earn the money needed for their return. Nazzo uses a criminal associate to kidnap the Ambassador's son Mortimer, who is a talented musician and leading contender for the title "World's Youngest Jazz

Drummer," aka in this case, "World's Worst Drummer." Nazzo intends to send the Ambassador a ransom demand signed by Mortimer, asking him to arrange for a ransom. However, Nazzo's associate is easily able to con the Ambassador into locating Monogram, Mortimer's tenor saxophone, and abducting the Ambassador's daughter Julie (Françoise Pascal) instead. Nazzo is not willing to let the Ambassador outlive his son. Sitting on two crates of dynamite, Nazzo is about to blow up the Ambassador's yachting party at anchor in Juarez's port, when Momo's gang raids the camp. Along with a gang of dirty

It's a 4x4 grid with cubes representing different colors. The overall goal of the game is to connect a green cube to another green cube. The number of steps needed is actually a puzzle itself. At the end of the puzzle each color that was solved is rewarded a bonus point, which adds up to a final score. This is a remake of an old 2x2 demo that I made for the keynote of the RedBalloon GameJam 2013. The demo was a fun way to show the concept of the game. With QuadWorlds I wanted to explore another concept, while still keeping the same 2x2 puzzle demo. The puzzle demo will still be in the game, but it will be much more accessible for the player. Since it will now be part of a full game, I made a bunch of changes on the way: - I introduced
