You can play this game on PC (Windows 10, Windows 7, Windows 8.1, Windows 8, Windows XP) with mouse and keyboard. Note: 1. Game features may differ from the screenshots, due to the limitation of iOS. A: Grogards and Guardians is a highly strategic, tactical turn-based board game. You start with a squad of 6 troops, 1 human and 5 Skirmishers. The maps are 3x3 inches, and are randomly generated. The game is turn-based, and during each turn you can play up to 3 actions, until the turn is complete. The board is split into 9 grids of squares (5x5 in the screenshot), where each infantryman can move in any one of the 8 directions (2x2 on the screenshot). The infantry can attack in one of two ways: Attacking with a single action (an attack is directed at either an enemy unit, or a blank square if there are no targets) deals 5 damage points to each enemy unit and 2 damage points to all blank squares. Attacking with two actions (a move action and an attack action) deals 10 damage points to each enemy unit and 4 damage points to blank squares. The game ends when all of the infantry have died, or when the enemy has escaped. /* * Copyright (c) 2018, 2020, Oracle and/or its affiliates. What's new in Solaroids - Soundtrack (OST):

Menu Don't worry, I'm not going to bore you with squirmy baby pictures anytime soon. I feel that I should probably just throw my entire week of quirks under the rug, because seriously, who cares about my flaws, right? (Except for my friends.) And of course that's not how my brain works. Side note: I think using words like quirks and flaws is the reason I'm single. So glad I'm not writing about my quirks, or I'd be in a wordless state for the next few weeks. Let's just say this kind of week got me all sorts of stressed out. For those of you not prone to such things, a mention or two of the following would do just fine: Volunteer: It's this weekend. I need to volunteer at a local Family Care Day because it's where $20.50 gets you a free meal for the poor, AND you also get to hear a story of strength in a woman who is still struggling, despite the success she is achieving. I will say, I do it with a bit of reluctance, but perhaps that is something I need to work on. Perhaps I love it too much... Cook with my family: I've mentioned this before, but I'd really like to do more of this in the coming weeks. We all live for taco bowls on Sunday afternoons, and I think that if we all got involved in cooking them together, then they would go down way smoother. Health: I skipped last week's. I think I was on too many painkillers. This week's is going to be nutritional as I rebuild my immune system and again undergo what I'm starting to call "metabolism therapy". Treat my friends: This is something that I need to get better at, and hopefully, I am. I know that friends are important, and I will put more effort into this, I just hope to outsource some of the work... Work: I'm sad that it's my last week for that! As much as I love the idea of most people knowing my name, I am most definitely a people person. I need to be known by as many people as possible. And I'm hoping that by
