Tuesday, March 20, 2011 When people ask me if I ever feel proud of my country I always have to say no. Why? Because my country is no longer led by a true constitutional government but has been led by a fascist party. The Constitution of the United States is a perfect document that was designed to provide a system for the protection of the rights and responsibilities of the citizenry. The document sets forth the basic principles of democracy and lays the foundation for a society of free people who function without fear under a Constitutional government. This document must be adhered to by our leaders and the legal system which is the foundation of this country. Read the document and see the way that it has been ignored and trampled upon since its creation in 1776. Is that is not the way the system is supposed to be
