What's new in Kaigrad Soundtracks Halrum Feat. Jackie-O:

- ##### Having been born from the game software's Gothic, from which I'm somewhat proud of, and in order to present beautiful graphics, I've started to use U-Material. First of all, I'd like to make these adjustments based on the image of the previous artworks by Aida and SplitMoyugan to reflect the quality of the art. (Surely they are influenced by the way of thinking that is strongly reflected in me. And sometimes there are ideas which would be troublesome with the previous one, so I made them differently. People might wonder, but I think this is fine. Anyway, I'd like to express, that the situation of the previous model, was enough as well.) Actually, it was to make sure about making those 3 things. It was also so that people had no worries about if that model can be figured out or not. Because I made it, I think I'll be able to draw in a more confident manner that one of the previous!! I started to make a scenario, and this screenshot is for reference. There are some strange people who want to attack Lan Empire. Well, this is Kuro Lynn. She also misses her home, and I am sure she will be full of sorrow and maybe she thinks she wants to continue her adventure alone. However, Please, don't misunderstand anything. This is my desire, my dream. I'd like to ask you to cherish the end of her adventure. Kuro Lynn, please make more beautiful while watching this mark on her face. Speaking of it, there's this. It might already be too late to prevent this surprise attack as well as the defect of the weapon, but (What's up with the rhythm in my head? I made a rough picture, and it might seem that my head is in an awful state. But please don't misunderstand. I don't mean it in a rough picture like that.) I'll make sure that people aren't harmed through the attack. I know that there won't be many people who are killed, but I would like to apologize profusely if that happens. Furthermore, (What do you think about it, Kuro Lynn? Should I make sure that people won't be harmed through the attack. Are you all right
