Renasce from nothingness. It's a hell filled with people like her. A hell that is also a prison. It's a game that's hard to win. You're welcome to join the game, no matter what you look like. Heavens Tournament is based on real world fighting and was originally created as a project for a fighting game that I was going to develop. However, it's created a lot of extra content (Vases) and practice games (Easy/Hard/Color Practice Mode) that makes the game more like a fighting game than a VR fighting game. If you want the full game and want to play online, click here: If you want to see the set of artwork I use as model for the cover, click here: If you want to support me and my work, I'd really appreciate it. In the game you start by having a single life, and you will have to craft food items so that you won't become a food-source for the hostile fauna. You will find these items in nests. To craft those items you need to use special crates available throughout the game. To navigate and view your surroundings you can use your PipBoy 3000 which gives you directions and directions to your next objective. You can also use a robot to get to your objective, but make sure to give it enough fuel, or it will eventually stop working. To craft items you will always have to gather resources, these resources are found mainly in the crates. As the game progress you will encounter more hostile fauna. If your hunger levels get to low you will be decimated by the fauna and a risk of death is high. The game has many upgrades that can be unlocked through gameplay, they will give you new and better items to craft. With lots of challenges to face, the game will keep you stimulated. .... Features: >10 different level of difficulty >7 in-game challenges to accomplish. >many upgrades throughout the game >customization of your weapons and gear. >many items to collect >many items to craft >randomized item drops >many puzzles >robots to help you on your missions. -Nes / retro styled game - Experience the retro inspired game in an unique way! This game is a modern remake of the classic Shooter game "Influx". The concept of the game is to survive as long as you can, using your wits against the hostile fauna that want to destroy you. INFLUX is a Nes/retro themed Shooter game. Use the objects in the environment to fight for survival. There are many different weapons and power-ups in the game. Each time you use an item, it will be unavailable to use until you have not used all your items for the day. You will have a lot of fun with the game and it will hold you captivated for many hours. The game will start out easy, but the difficulty is customisable, allowing you to play at your own pace. The gameplay is a Shooter one, but you can use your PipBoy 3000 to get assistance from the robot, at the risk of depleting the energy of the robot. Throughout the game you will find different items such as back each native draft using Fantasy Grounds' native tile-supported "level editor". Scenario pack 3 includes 5 modules: Epic Feature #1: Outlanders/The Outlander, Epic Feature #2: Airship City-In-The-Sky Each of these modules has a variety of different content from monster to NPC to world features between them. Epic Feature #1: Outlanders/The Outlander includes an initiator, monsters, and lots of new player content for use in any campaign. Downloads This update has made significant work on the world editor as well, iterating hard and functional service as these scenarios are large. I find myself making function code to breathe life into the World Editor, having content implemented and play testing. Sometimes when I'm making content it feels like testing the guestimate of what the player would experience what I've made, or developing the content the world runs more efficiently. It's a great feeling! I haven't worked on it nearly as hard as I've worked on gameplay since Episode 1, but I still felt myself progress as a designer, and really enjoy seeing the game I'm making for in development. About this Release I'm going to take time to talking a little about putting these scenario packs out, and answering questions I see on forums or private messages about development. 1) MMORPG Libs, GG and Loading Screen Templates, World Editor Content In 2017 I made an engine purpose built to create large maps for MMORPG without the responsibility of maintaining a persistent data. Fantasy Grounds' data works just fine, but I didn't like the way it caches and I wanted to know what was going to be on the storage device I'd be using, and how that would fit within FFG's storage system. I found the MyBB ES (MBE Support) plugin. I used that plugin to create large tileable file which was as easy as making a file and deleting it. MyBB ES also presented the data in a convenient, very readable manner. With those files, I now reuse a lot of the large tileset components that Fantasy Grounds

The zoo is the favorite of Anna and her family. Anna loves animals, but after the unfortunate death of her beloved little brother, she was forced to give up her dream of becoming a zoologist. Until she meets Joe, a friend of her brother's and the zoo's curator. The zoo is at the top of his priority list. And it's at the top of hers. Anna is thrilled at the prospect of again working on a zoological project. She receives a new set of keys, and this time she's determined to do her job properly. Sadly, she can't help thinking about her lost brother: How can she not? Anna's life changes course when, a few days after starting at the zoo, her brother's death is suddenly revealed to have been the result of an animal attack. As Anna searches for answers, she's forced to face some disturbing facts: This appears to be no isolated incident. Other animals are being attacked, and suddenly she needs to return to her hometown. Can Anna solve the mystery? Will she ever be able
