We are a progressive, grassroots, democratic, and militant union of 21,000 teachers and school support professionals. Text of President's Memorandum on FY 2012-2013 Federal Funding for Education To: The Federal Student Aid Office (FSA)Administrator Re: Funding for Education Programs Dear Administrator, I am writing today to provide you with information concerning how we have handled federal student aid funding in the current fiscal year. As you know, funding for education programs is provided under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA). In Fiscal Year 2012, the HEA grants account was reduced by over a billion dollars (from $25.4 billion to $23.3 billion) as part of a continuing series of budget cuts implemented over the past several years, including the so-called sequestration cuts (in spite of the current Joint Select Committee on Deficit Reduction/Super Committee's proposals to not implement sequestration). [cut] Because of these budget cuts, we have had to reduce funding for all of our education programs. We spent last year transitioning the Elementary and Secondary Education Act to an extended school year funding program, reducing the application process in order to meet the needs of the programs and deadlines throughout the fiscal year. In September, we are required to deliver a Notice of Funding Availability (NFA) for the Title IV grant amounts that are allocated for the following fiscal year. However, we are not required to release the amount of each title until the end of the fiscal year. A delay in the release of the amount of each title will
