Hotfix is a small application (12 MB) that will download the latest Microsoft updates from the Internet. It lets you schedule a hotfix for a specific date and time or change its components. It is useful for IT administrators of a company to be able to quickly download the latest updates for software and system components. You can also limit which systems will receive the update. Hotfix downloads are provided by Microsoft and not by the Hotfix Download Tool. Hotfix Download is a free download manager application that allows you to download files from the Internet at a fast speed. It contains two built-in download accelerators: Hotfix and FlashGet. Hotfix Download Manager runs in the system tray and automatically downloads files from the Internet.
