Training : HD Player 2. description of HTML Player 2.0. html. (z. Custom post types and themes I have a custom post type called 'client'. This type is related to a number of posts. At the moment I am creating posts for this type on the front end by entering the name of the client. I was wondering how I can show the client's posts on the homepage of a theme I have and link them back to the post. I am using wordpress 3.0.1 A: Try this code: `add_action('after_setup_theme', 'custom_setup_theme');`
`function custom_setup_theme() { register_taxonomy_for_object_type('client', 'client'); } add_action('init', 'custom_init');`
`function custom_init() { register_post_type('client', array( 'label' => __('Client Posts'), 'public' =>`
