Hello, I have a top view, as you can see in figure 1. I can save it as a.zip file. How do I extract that into a black box and white box with the rest of my pictures? sorry for the problems lol. A: Download the zip file of the image, drag the zip file to the desktop and select extract files to folder from the file menu on the image. You should then find the extracted image file is called TOPVIEW. Double click the file and the image should appear in your folder. You can then save as a jpg, png, gif or any other format you wish. A: It's already a ZIP file. Just extract it from the zip file in your file manager and you'll get an image file. Supervision in the American health care system. A recent spate of research on the quality of health care in the United States suggests that problems in the US system are not only growing, but are likely to worsen. The results reflect the findings of the numerous independent evaluations of the public and private health care systems.

The roots of these problems are complex and not always directly associated with the relatively new trend towards managed care. Although the government's role in improving the quality of health care in the United States is substantial and perhaps unique, it is not sufficient to address the problem. This article reviews data and measures, uses several lenses to assess trends and performance, and proposes a model of supervision that may prove useful for major reforms that need to occur in the future. U.S. attorney says she'll seek death penalty for Hatfill NBC's David Gregory (C) and correspondent Ann Curry (L) interview former FBI profiler Dr. James Hunt (R) in a helicopter as they fly over the Patuxent River in Laurel, Md., on June 5, 2002. (UPI Photo/Cliff Owen) WASHINGTON -- The United States attorney for the District of Columbia, Ronald C. Machen Jr., said Tuesday that a federal grand jury will seek the death penalty against the man accused of killing the former U.S. surgeon general, recommending that the government not pursue the case in a civilian court. "This was a heinous, heinous crime, and it caused an unprecedented amount of fear and panic in the area,"

Machen said, after announcing that charges would be brought against Steven Hatfill. The decision by Machen, a Democrat c6a93da74d
