December 11, 2021 - Hello everyone, I'm trying to import the Speex library into my B4A project, the Speex library depends on the native JNA library, I managed to import the .so, I have also read that this is not recommended because it will only work on the Windows platform, but if I try to import the .so file in B4A it gives the following error "JNA.cs.obj: Error CS0246: Accessing non-existent attribute 'token_type' in attribute 'token_address' in 'System.object'. Here is my code in B4A: public static void main(String[] args) throws Exception { B4A.NativeClass class = System.Native.Interfaces.CreateClass(NativeMethods.NativeMethods.NativeMethods dd2bc28256
