5. A devotee usually worships (prays to) the goddess of Navnath for a long time. However, if a devotee wishes to buy a farm land in that village on the day of Saptami festival, then this would be the most appropriate time to do it. 7. Navnath mantra is available at Navnath temple. To make the mantra available to the public, the state government was forced to enact the law known as the 'Navnath Prakara Bhusan Act'. (dated 11.7.13). Under this law, only a person who has undergone the rites of Brahmacharya can purchase the mantra. Even though the law is to prevent the corruption in the mantra market, in fact, the Navnath mantra has become a major corruption. This is because ordinary man can buy the mantra for a higher price, just like the sale of the Guru Granth Sahib. 9. Everyone should become a devotee of Navnath by his/her birth. However, the ones who become born with the desire of becoming a devotee of Navnath should go to Sangam and put their faith in the Goddess of Navnath. 11. Devi Navnath is the goddess of Navnath. She resides in the hearts of all the devotee, however, it resides in that of a lesser devotee, i.e. mother. The mother is the Navnath deity of the mother, who reads the devotionals. A small time passes for the total to read the devotionals. The mother of the devotee reads devotionals. I started Navnath Bhakti - Saar reading around 2010. When I started, Navnath Bhakti Saar was written in Marathi. Later, the publisher revised the book, published it, which was available in Marathi as well as Hindi language. Later I learned that all 9 Navanath Bhakti Saars or Navnath Bhakti Saars are available in English as well. But it is very difficult to read. Now I am lucky to come across Navnath Bhakti Saar in hindi. The hindi version of Navnath Bhakti Saar available in English is published by Navnath Bhakti Sabha.
