quasimodo was born disfigured, hunchbacked and lame, and years spent ringing the bells of the cathedral of notre dame have left him deaf, but also spared him the taunts of the cruel mobs of paris. now quasimodo has fallen in love with the lovely gypsy girl esmeralda, the only person who ever showed pity on him - but she faces a death sentence, and only quasimodo's pure spirit can save her. or can he defy the law and break her heart? the hunchback of notre dame was obviously a quality production. after all, it has some dandy actors (such as cederic hardwicke, henry davenport, edmond o'brien, thomas mitchell, laughton and maureen o'hara), nice costumes and lovely sets that must have cost a fortune. and, it's also a lot more watchable than the old silent version with lon chaney, sr.--so i do recommend you watch it. 1. olim (01:04) 2. the bells of notre dame (07:28) 3. out there (04:37) 4. topsy turvy, pt. 1 (02:06) 5. rest and recreation (02:56) 6. rhythm of the tambourine (02:54) 7. 2 (02:40) 8. notre dame (intro) (02:07) 9. god help the outcasts (03:33) 10. top of the world (03:28) 11. heavens light (01:56) 12. hellfire (03:42) 13. esmeralda (05:36) 14. entracte (02:33) 15. flight into egypt (03:27) 16. earth is flat the hunchback of notre dame was obviously a quality production. after all, it has some dandy actors (such as cederic hardwicke, henry davenport, edmond o'brien, thomas mitchell, laughton and maureen o'hara), nice costumes and lovely sets that must have cost a fortune. and, it's also a lot more watchable than the old silent version with lon chaney, sr.--so i do recommend you watch it. however, i do have one reservation--it plays very fast and loose with the original story by victor hugo. in hugo's version, the story is not a nice tale with a happy ending. no, pretty much everyone dies and it's a downer! but, only hollywood would think to 'happify' it!! it's a shame, as the film had a lot going for it--including charles laughton's lovely performance as poor 'ol quasimodo.oh, and the history teacher in me feels compelled to object to a statement early in the film that everyone thought the earth was flat back in the 15th century. this is a myth--and people did know that the planet was round. i could go on and on explaining it, but if you really care, do an internet search using the terms 'flat earth myth' and you'll see what i mean. they knew the earth was round even in ancient times--and the folks in the middle ages and renaissance weren't nearly as stupid as we'd like to imagine.
