to introduce our new lighting system for wedding and portrait photography, we've teamed up with our neighbor, photojojo.com, to offer a 40% discount to their clients who purchase a photography studio license! this new lighting system will give you a variety of options for lighting, including portraits, events, weddings, and glamour, and can create amazing photos just about anywhere. ( click here for more details ) couples photography is about having fun, creating great images, and capturing moments that your clients will cherish forever. the usual rule of thumb is you have 4-6 hours a session, but for headshots or engagement sessions, you should double that just to be sure your clients have someplace comfortable to sit! professional photographers take their time and really focus on getting their clients to the next level, both literally and figuratively. if you aren't sure if you shouldn't talk about money or not, it's best to not to talk about it because most people just want to get the job done. everyone has their own experience and style, and you shouldn't let that get in the way of your own creative expression. there are very few photographers who wouldn't be inspired by being able to meet a client who has very high expectations, such as a wedding photographer who has perfectly envisioned their reception.
