the airport is located in the northwest of the city, just a few kilometers away from the famous tay son river. the city is separated into two parts by the river, with the upper part being known as the old quarter. the airport is located just north of the old quarter, and is set on a hilltop, surrounded by large residential and commercial areas. the airport is a medium-sized facility, with a single runway, which has no facilities such as an ils. this means that the airport should be easy to approach, but there is a small chance of passing over vvnb with an incorrect approach angle. not sure there is a special category for airports, but please could someone redevelop vvnb/hanoi. one parking spot, and the new terminal area isnt included. moreover, while the atc box shows 2 runways 11l/r, actually only 11l is available/visible. noi bai international airport (han), the biggest airport in the northern of vietnam. it is located 28 miles (45 km) from the central city (hanoi- the capital of vietnam). when exiting noi bai international airport, you will see lines to queue for taxis, with a sign stating that it costs $15-16 usd to hanoi center. there are a few companies operating this route including: vietnam transfer service, viet thanh taxi, airport taxi and noi bai taxi or hanoi airport transfer. you will pay directly to the driver when arriving at the hotel. no toll fee or any other charge. however, this is not always the case as tourists have been overcharged, even up to $300usd for a taxi. apart from this, beware of taxi touts. it isnt a bad idea to arrange an airport transfer with your hotel or a travel agent in hanoi. its true that you have to bargain when buy anything in hanoi. and please note: dont pay the drivers by the counting clock in their cars, first you should ask them about the price. in case that you want to save your money for the taxi, then you can catch a bus instead (they have round trip tickets available: noi bai-206 trang quang khai str and reverse). this bus was supported by jet star pacific airlines. the one way ticket is 40,000vnd (about 2 usd).

the airport is located 28 miles from the city center and is served by a number of high-speed buses. however, the airport also has numerous taxi stands as well as buses to the city center. it is also connected to the city via the hanoi metro. the airport can only be reached by car, by hanoi metro, by bus or by taxi. the airport is best accessed by car as its close to the airport, the city and the airport has the most convenient access points. the airport is located in the northwest part of the city and is accessible from the city center via the hanoi ring road. han việt nam the best airports in vietnam. han is the largest airport in vietnam. it has a very big capacity. the taxi to hanoi from han airport costs $15-$16 and from noi bai $16-18.

the hanoi airport is located south of the city center and is served by two terminals: terminal 1 and terminal 2. terminal 1 is for domestic flights and terminal 2 for international flights. currently, they are the only airline serving the airport, but there are many more possibilities soon. *please notice: the airport is not in the scenery, this is a separate file. you can use it with all airports in the world (fs2004 + fsx) or only with vietnam. the code (vvnb) is for vietnam in the fsx scenery of the fs2004. the scenery is a great product of this developer, designed with a lot of attention. thx for the lovely photo. its not a texture pack. the aircraft, helicopters and planes are very realistic. the textures of the airport and the city are also very nice. the buildings in the city are well designed and placed. there are many details and many buildings designed with a lot of attention. also, there is a helicopter taxi and a bus, and a lot of this scenery is not included in the fsx scenery of thaicreation (so i bought this scenery to use it with the fsx scenery of thaicreation). the helicopter taxi is included in the scenery for
