
Ioncube Decoder Serial Key

make sure you understand the risks you are taking with the protection you choose, and make sure you understand how to monitor what your users are doing with their protected files, and how to handle the security holes that exist with ioncube if you dont take care. the following steps are necessary to download and install the ioncube loader in your php-cgi script and the number of processes, memory and encryption key to use. note that php.ini file settings and configurations are necessary to ensure that the loader works properly. depending on the server, these instructions will work for either a file based or a fcgi script. note that the fcgi.cgi script runs as a daemon (without a web user) and is typically used for databases and large processes. this is a simple tool to convert php to a zend encoder format so that it can be used with zendguard, ioncube, iontheme and other application protectors. it will also cause the code to not be executable. this can be used in a number of ways, if your script is going to be used in an output etc then you don't want it to be runnable by the end user. if you are publishing an.exe on your website then use the conversion script to make the files not executable. anyway, some of your files are writable. not all -- ioncube obviously, but if you use it as a project target, it may be possible to..
